EXTRA MASS: There will be an extra Mass each Tuesday during Lent at 7.30am, beginning Tuesday 12th March.

LENTEN HOUR OF PRAYER will take place in St. Joseph's Chapel on Sundays from 6.30pm - 7.30 pm (except March 17th which is St. Patrick's Day). The Lenten Hour of Prayer begins on Sunday 10th March.

As you pursue your vocation - a vocation so intimately related to the word of God - I wish to recall to you one simple but important lesson taken from the life of Saint Patrick; and it is this: in the history of evangelisation, the destiny of an entire people - your people - was radically affected for time and eternity because of the fidelity with which Saint Patrick embraced and proclaimed the word of God, and by reason of the fidelity with which Saint Patrick pursued his call to the end. What I really want you to realise is this: that God counts on you, that he makes his plans, in a way, depend on your free collaboration, on the oblation of your lives, and on the generosity which which you follow the inspiration of the Holy Spirit in the depths of your hearts.

Pope St. John Paul II, Address to Seminarians, Maynooth, 1979

CHILDREN'S CORNER - Learning about the Mass

THE AMBO: The Word of God is so important for us that there is a special place in God's house from which it is read. We call this the AMBO. The only time that the ambo is used is for the Readings, the Gospel, the Homily and the Prayer of the Faithful.

MINISTER OF THE WORD: The person who reads at Mass is called the Minister of the Word. They are people who have volunteered to read at Mass. They will have had to do some training so that they are able to do the best job they can. Their job is very important. The readings at Mass come from the Bible. They are the Word of God, and so we can say that we hear God speaking to us through the voice of the Minister of the Word.

We look forward to a large attendance of parents and guardians at the meeting.

CONTACT SOCIAL: There was a very enjoyable Contact social recently where Ollie Burke, Michael Griffin, Eilish Quinn and Jodie Durcan and Hilary Foley entertained us with song and music. James Corcoran recited his poetry and Ann Connell did some fine sean nós dancing for the group. Contact members were sorry to hear of the passing of Anne Murtagh recently. Anne was a very nice person and was a great friend of Contact for many years. We extend our sympathy to her family and friends.
