RECENT DEATHS

Pray for J.J. McLoughlin, Crossmolina, father of Gabriel McLoughlin, Cordarragh, and for JUDY MORAN, Brussels, and Thomas Street, sister of Martin Moran, Cois Abhainn, who died recently.

BAPTISMS

We welcome into the Christian Community LUKA THOMAS O'BEIRNE, Fortlands and THOMAS JAMES KELLY, Altbawn Crescent who were baptised in Kiltimagh Church last weekend.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Sacrament of Reconciliation is available every Saturday at 2pm in St. Joseph's Chapel or at other times by prior arrangement.

PRAYER OF REMEMBRANCE

God, thank you for the special people in our lives whom we are remembering in a special way during the month of November. We thank you for being a compassionate God who walks with us in our dark moments of grief and loneliness. We are thankful for all who continue to love and support us through our grief. Lord, continue to be a light for us, giving us hope, direction and courage. May we now live our lives treasuring the memories of those special people we have known and loved and help us to bring light and hope to others. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ROSARY FOR OUR DEAD

During the month of November the Rosary will be recited at 9.30am each weekday morning. There will be no Rosary recited in the cemetery due to current restrictions.

CHURCH CLEANING

The church interior, all its contents, the toilets and the Parish Centre are now being sprayed with Zoon-71 which gives 30 days protection against Covid-19. It leaves a coating which is active against the virus for at least one month. Please continue to observe all the personal hygiene requirements to help combat the spread of this disease.

TROCAIRE: The Trocaire office in Maynooth kindly acknowledge the sum total of €39,686.82 from the parishes of the Diocese of Achonry towards this year's Lenten Campaign. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

LOUGH DERG NOVEMBER MEMORIAL SERVICE for deceased pilgrims and benefactors takes place live via Webcam from St. Mary's Church, Pettigo, on Sunday 22nd Nov at 7pm. Log on to www.churchservices.tv/pettigo. To enrol a departed loved one, please contact us by email on info@loughderg.org, tel 090353) 71 9861518. Or write to Fr. SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPEL Mt. 25:1-13

1. While the parable has clear and end-of-time applications it can also be applied to any moment of grace. It reminds us that moments of grace come unexpectedly, and we need to be awake to receive them. Recall times when you were alert for such a moment. What were the consequences for you? 2. Grace can also be disturbing. We can be coasting along in life and suddenly an opportunity or a graced moment arrives and we are shaken out of our routine in order to respond. Perhaps you can recall both moments when you were unprepared, and moments when you were able to respond. What lessons have you learned from such experiences? 3. We may be tempted to judge the wise virgins as being selfish for not sharing with the others, but perhaps Jesus is teaching that there are some things that other people cannot provide for us. We have to acquire them ourselves. What qualities in life do you see as the essential oil that you must provide for yourself? (Intercom)

FAMILY PRAYER TIME (Loyola Press)

In the daily activities of family life, we can easily find excuses for not attending to our spiritual lives. If not given top priority, prayer and reading Scripture risk becoming occasional activities rather than daily practices. In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that if we fail to give our spiritual life priority, we will find ourselves unprepared to receive Jesus. Daily prayer and spiritual practice keeps us ready to receive Jesus.

Gather together as a family and talk about some of the things our faith calls us to do every day and every week to keep God first in our lives. Talk about what might happen if we don't do these things regularly. Explain to your family that Jesus taught us that it is important to keep ourselves ready to receive him when he comes again. Tell them to listen as you read the parable that Jesus tells in today's Gospel. Read aloud Matthew 25:1-13. Talk with your family about why Jesus says that it is so important to remain ready to receive the Kingdom of Heaven. Pray together that your family will always keep God first in your lives so that you will all be prepared to receive Jesus when he comes. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

CHILDRENS' CORNER (Loyola Press)

It is important that we do all the things we need to do to get ready in the morning, isn't it? We don't want to forget something important, like our school books, by being distracted by things we don't need to do. Today's Gospel reading is about being ready for something different. We learn about being ready to receive Jesus. In Jesus' time, the bridegroom traveled from his home to the home of the bride to meet the bride and bring her back to his home. The people in this parable were family members and friends of the bride, whose job it was to greet the bride groom and escort him to the bride. Just like the wise women in this story, we need to be ready to receive Jesus. When we live as Jesus has taught us to live, we are ready to receive him. What are some things Jesus has taught us to do? Praying every day, learning what God wants us to do, obeying the Commandments. Pray that Jesus will continue to help us be ready to receive him by praying the Our Father.
