CHILDREN'S CORNER (Loyola Press)

Are girls or boys students? (Both boys and girls can be students.) In some countries, girls are not allowed to go to school. They don't get to learn as girls do here. In Jesus' time, there were strict rules about what men and women could do. For example, women weren't supposed to be disciples, or students. In today's Gospel, Jesus visits the house of two sisters, Martha and Mary. Notice what Jesus has to say about Mary, who sits at Jesus' feet and listens to him teach. ("Mary has chosen the better part; it is not to be taken from her") Martha didn't understand how her sister, Mary, could listen to Jesus' teaching. She was supposed to be doing housework! But Jesus defends Mary. He shows us that everyone can be his follower. Pray: Thank you, merciful and loving Jesus, for showing us that salvation is for everyone who believes in you and follows you. We pray for all people to know the peace of a life with you. Amen.

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) In our families and homes, we have boundaries. Some are geographical; we may have our own room or part of a room that we want others to stay out of. Parents may have home offices that are off-limits to children. Some boundaries are behavioral; children may speak one way to their friends, but they are not allowed to speak the same way to their parents or other adults. A Curfew is another type of boundary, whose purpose is to protect children's safety. Talk about examples of boundaries in your family. For the most part, these boundaries are good. Talk about how sometimes we set up boundaries for the wrong reasons. For example, if we are angry with a sibling, we may draw a line and tell him or her to stay on his or her side. Explain that when we use boundaries to exclude others, we are being hurtful. Point out how in Jesus' time, some boundaries were used to unfairly exclude people. One example was from last week's Gospel: Samaritans. This Sunday's Gospel has another example: women. Talk about how the role of women has changed in your lifetime. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus breaks down a barrier that kept women from being disciples. Read aloud Luke 10:38-42. Talk about how Martha is conditioned by the existing boundaries of her society, but how her sister, Mary, breaks through that boundary and becomes a disciple of Jesus. Talk about how you can work as a family to break down boundaries that separate people. Point out that when we pray the Lord's Prayer, we call God "Our Father," meaning that we are all his children; no boundaries should separate us. Conclude by praying the Lord's Prayer.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH LENS OF THE GOSPEL - Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The two sisters symbolize the contemplative and active dimensions of life, at times difficult to balance. What wisdom have you learned through life experiences on how to strike a balance between prayer and action? Many people misunderstand hospitality. They worry and fret about decorating the house and preparing abundant food. Yet sometimes it is something else that is needed to make people feel at home, namely, to sit with guests and to listen to them speaking. What has been your experience of being a cherished guest and when have you been able to make others feel welcome and at home? We can make the same mistake in relation to people who are important to us in life: children, friends, parents, or others. We can worry and fret about doing things for them when perhaps the important thing is to give them time and to listen to them. What does your experience tell you? When it comes to welcoming God into our lives, one appropriate response is to give time listening to God's word. When have you found time devoted to the word of God enriching for you?
