PUBLIC CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

Under new Government guidelines that came into effect from 22nd Oct, 2021 churches can have congratation at full capacity with all other protective measures remaining in place. This requires not attending if having symptoms of Covid, sanitizing hands, the wearing of masks and social distancing as appropriate. Holy Communion will be distributed by coming forward to the Sanctuary area, and on the hand. Those in side aisles are requested to come forward in aisle along the wall and return by next aisle, leaving appropriate space. Those in main aisle are requested to alternate between right and left seats so that there is only a single line coming forward and to return by next aisle leaving appropriate distance between themselves and also those of side aisles returning to their seats. Masks to be worn processing for Holy Communion and returning to seats. Those in St. Joseph's Chapel are requested to come forward in the wall aisle close to the Chapel and return in the next aisle. Holy Communion will be brought to anyone for whom it is not possible to come forward. Thank you again to all stewards for their great assistance during the past year and a half, and to our sacristan James, for keeping interior of the church and all it's contents thoroughly sanitized as well as keeping the necessary supplies in place.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: This weekend parishes worldwide celebrate World Mission Sunday. The kindness shown will help overseas missionaries to continue to share the love of God with some of the world's most marginalised and vulnerable people. Thank you for supporting in whatever way you can, and please remember it is not only an appeal for financial help. Missionaries also need spiritual support. On World Mission Sunday missionaries take great strength knowing that the faithful of the world are keeping them in their thoughts and prayers. This year's theme 'We Cannot Remain Silent - we cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard' (Acts 4:20) is twofold. It is a message of hope: Jesus Christ is risen and we cannot keep his love, compassion and mercy to ourselves. It also challenges us to stand up and speak out on behalf of those whose voices are too small to be heard. For them, we cannot remain silent. All offerings made on behalf of World Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's universal Solidarity Fund. This fund supports missionary activities in over 1,100 young dioceses; mostly in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. As young dioceses grow, so do their needs. On top of this, thereonaries can continue to go to these places to share the love of God. Donate €4 by texting the word 'Mission' to 50300. Alternatively donate at www.mission.ie or call Missio Ireland on 01 497 2035. Go to www.mission.ie for further information. A lay helper of the Missionary Sisters of St. Peter Claver, Pat McHugh, will be visiting our parish on the weekend of 6/7th November to speak about the sisters' work and will be very grateful for your support.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING takes place on Thursday 28th October at 7.30pm in St. Joseph's Chapel.

FAMILY PRAYER (Loyola Press)

Today's Gospel offers us a powerful example of faith and persistence in prayer. Those around him rebuked Bartimaeus for his efforts to attract Jesus' attention. When silenced by the crowd, however, Bartimaeus called out all the more. He is persistent and bold in his confidence that Jesus will show mercy on him and do what he asks. His persistence and great confidence that Jesus would help him reminds us of the confidence with which our children bring to us their needs. In their faith and trust we can find an example of the attitude with which we might approach God in prayer. As a family, recall a request that has been made repeatedly by one family member to another. Talk about why the request continues to be made if the answer continues to be no. Then read together today's Gospel, Mark 10:46-52. After reading the Gospel, pose questions such as these to your family: why must Bartimaeus be persistent in calling out to Jesus? (Some people in the crowd are telling him to be quiet) What does Bartimaeus do when some try to stop him? (He calls out to Jesus all the more) When Jesus stops and calls for him, what does Jesus do and say? (He restores Bartimaeus' sight; Jesus tells Bartimaeus his faith has saved him). When we pray, God wants us to be so confident he will help us that we don't permit anyone to keep us from bringing our needs to God in prayer. Invite family members to identify the things they need most from God. Pray these prayers of petition together as a family, confident that God will hear and answer your prayers. Respond to each petition, 'Jesus, Son of David, have pity on us.' Conclude by praying the Glory Be To The Father.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPEL - WORLD MISSION SUNDAY (Loyola Press)

1. In this story Jesus cures the blind man, Bartimaeus. Recovery of sight in the Bible is often a metaphor for coming to faith. Perhaps during your life you have had moments of insight, of deeper understanding, of appreciating who Jesus is for you. What was it that helped you to see more clearly? 2. Who has the 'Jesus person' who helped you to see more clearly? Perhaps, as a parent, a teacher, a friend, you have also been a 'Jesus person' for another and helped her or him to a clear understanding of the meaning of life, love and faith. 3. To get to Jesus, Bartimaeus threw aside his cloak so that he would not be impeded. What have you had to discard to be able to see more clearly. (i.e, an assumption, a prejudice, a rigid opinion?) 4. 'Your faith has saved you' Jesus said to Bartimaeus. Recall situations in which you have been grateful for the faith that is yours because in some way it saved you.

CHILDRENS CORNER (Loyola Press)

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us to always bring our needs to him. Let's learn what happened when a man named Bartimaeus brought his needs to Jesus. Bartimaeus was blind. What did he want from Jesus? (He wanted Jesus to heal him so that he could see) Did Bartimaeus stop asking Jesus when the people told him to stop? (No, he kept calling out to Jesus) Did Jesus heal the man? (Yes) Bartimaeus didn't stop asking Jesus for help. He had faith in Jesus. Jesus told Bartimaeus that his faith had saved him. God wants us to have so much faith in him that we do not let anyone else stop us from praying to him. We can pray for God's help whenever we need to and as many times as we need to. God is always with us. He loves us, and he wants to help us. Pray in the quiet of your heart, asking God for something you need and thanking him for something you already have. Then pray the Glory Be To The Father.
