PUBLIC CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

Under the present public health guidelines we are able to have two sections of 50 persons each in our church. Section A entrance/exit is the side door facing the Parochial House and Section B entrance/exit is the church's Main Door. There can be no intermingling of the two sections. Social distancing of 2 meters within sections, wearing face masks if at all possible, and hand sanitizing are to be observed. Members of the same household can be together in seat but different households need to be 2 meters apart if in same seat. Holy Communion will continue to be distributed in the seats and on the hand. Choir is not permitted at this time. Thank you to stewards for their great assistance and to our sacristan, James, for keeping the interior of the church and all its contents thoroughly sanitized and as well as keeping necessary supplies up to date.

FR. PADDY KILCOYNE'S FIRST ANNIVERSARY MASS will be celebrated on Saturday 19th June at 12 noon in Kiltimagh Church. In remembering him and praying for him, we again acknowledge his great contribution to the parish here and to all the parishes he served in his fifty-three years of priestly ministry. As we ask the Lord to reward him for all the goodness and kindness of his life, we include his very generous donation of €5000 for the upkeep of our church left in his Will. Sincere thanks also to Fr. Paddy's family for donating his Mass Kit to our parish. Fr. Paddy's 1st anniversary Mass will be available on www.kiltimaghparish.org/churchservicestv.tv

POPE'S INTENTION FOR JUNE: The beauty of Marriage: Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

VOCATIONS: 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many.' Are you being chosen by Christ to pour out your life's work for others with Him as a priest or in the consecrated life? Speak to your local priest or Diocesan Vocations Director, or email the National Vocations Office on email info@vocations.ie

EXAM PRAYER: Dear Lord, as I take these exams, I thank you that my life is enfolded in the embrace of your great love for me. Help me with all the testing challenges of life that will come my way. Holy Spirit, guide me with the gifts of Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding and right Judgement. Holy Mary, pray for us and all our young people. May they know the touch of your loving caress. Amen.

FAMILY PRAYER TIME (Loyola Press)

Church documents call the Christian family the 'domestic church'. This is both a compliment and a call to commitment. Because the family is a community formed in love and dedicated to the physical and spiritual growth of its members, it is a miniature version of the Kingdom of God on earth. This Sunday's Gospel reading, Mark 4:26-34, consists of two parables that Jesus used to help us discern the mystery of the Kingdom of God. The beginning of the kingdom is compared to a tiny seed that over time matures and ripens. Many of the things we do within the family seem insignificant. They are part of our daily activity and attract little attention. Yet they show our love and concern for one another. According to the Gospel, it's these small things that yield big results, acting as significant contributions to the growth of God's kingdom on earth. The growth of the seed illustrates the nature and the results of a strong faith. Read aloud together the Gospel of Mark 4:26-34. Consider how your family's concerns reflect the Church's concerns for those members who are poor, forgotten, hungry, ill, shunned or lonely. Together think of a specific action that you can do to assist a person in your extended family, neighbourhood, or parish. Now pray together the Lord's Prayer, pausing briefly to consider the import of the words 'thy kingdom come'. Each evening this week as you gather for supper, share with one another the simple acts of love you witnessed within the family that day.

11th Sunday in Ordinary time - SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPEL (Intercom)

1. If you sow seeds, or watch plants grow, you have ample opportunities to pause in wonder at the whole process of growth. It takes place imperceptibly and comes to fruition in beautiful flowers, majestic trees and abundant harvests. As we come out of the coronavirus lockdown you may have had an opportunity to rejoice at the renewal of social life. 2. Jesus uses this as a parable about the growth of the Kingdom of God, the kingdom of right relationships with God and with one another. There, too, growth is slow, development is imperceptible, and then, without realising it, you have a mature relationship. Recall the stages of such development in your life and give thanks. 3. In the second parable Jesus invites us to reflect on the importance and significance of relationships in our lives as they grow and mature. This is true both of our relationship with God and with others around us. When have you found a relationship in which you could 'make a nest in its shade'?

CHILDRENS CORNER (Loyola Press)

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus uses parables when talking to the people. Parables are stories about things on earth that tell us something about the things of Heaven. Parables help us understand what Jesus wants to know. The parables we will hear today are about something very tiny - seeds. Most seeds are small, but the mustard seed is super small; it's about the size of a teeny dot on a sheet of paper. What Jesus is saying is that although seeds are small, they can grow into something big and important. In the first parable, the seeds planted grew into a healthy crop of grain, but it took many days and nights. In the second parable, the mustard seed grew into a tree. But this, too, took time. When things take a long time to happen, we have to be patient. We have to have faith. God wants us to know that if we live as Jesus asks us to, we can look forward to happiness with God in the Kingdom of Heaven. Pray the Our Father, paying special attention to the words, 'the kingdom come'.
