PUBLIC CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

Under the present public health guidelines we are able to have two sections of 50 persons each in our church. Section A entrance/exit is the side door facing the Parochial House and Section B entrance/exit is the church's Main Door. There can be no intermingling of the two sections. Social distancing of 2 meters within sections, wearing face masks if at all possible, and hand sanitizing are to be observed. Members of the same household can be together in seat but different households need to be 2 meters apart if in same seat. Holy Communion will continue to be distributed in the seats and on the hand. Choir is not permitted at this time. Thank you to stewards for their great assistance and to our sacristan, James, for keeping the interior of the church and all it's contents thoroughly sanitized and as well as keeping necessary supplies up to date.

CORPUS CHRISTI: It is highly fitting that Christ should have wanted to remain present to his Church in this unique way. Since Christ was about to take his departure from his own in his visible form, he wanted to give us his sacramental presence; since he was about to offer himself on the cross to save us; he wanted us to have the memorial of the love with which he loved us 'to the end', even to the giving of his life. In his Eucharistic presence he remains mysteriously in our midst as the one who loved us and gave himself for us, and he remains under signs that express and communicate this love. (CCC.1380) With no Procession this year, a short time of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament will follow the 11am Mass this Sunday and conclude with Benediction.

POPE'S INTENTION FOR JUNE: The beauty of Marriage: Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

JUNE 11th - THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS: Four prayers from the Litany of the Sacred Heart unfold for us the centrality of Christ in our lives: (1) Heart of Jesus, full of goodness and love. (2) Heart of Jesus, in whom dwells the fullness of God. (3) Heart of Jesus, generous to all who turn to you. (4) Heart of Jesus, patient and full of mercy.

VOCATIONS: 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many.' Are you being chosen by Christ to pour out your life's work for others with Him as a priest or in the consecrated life? Speak to your local priest or Diocesan Vocations Director, or email the National Vocations Office on email info@vocations.ie

EXAM PRAYER: Dear Lord, as I take these exams, I thank you that my life is enfolded in the embrace of your great love for me. Help me with all the testing challenges of life that will come my way. Holy Spirit, guide me with the gifts of Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding and right Judgement. Holy Mary, pray for us and all our young people. May they know the touch of your loving caress. Amen.

June 9th - ST. COLUMBA, ABBOT AND MISSIONARY, SECONDARY PATRON OF IRELAND, also known as Colum Cille, was born in Gartan, County Donegal in 521 and was of royal lineage. He studied under Finnian of Moville and Finnian of Clonard. He founded monasteries in Deny, Durrow, Iona and possibly Kells. From Iona, which became his principal foundation, missionaries undertook the conversion of Northumbria. Colum Cille is noted for his love for people and for all living creatures. He died in 597.

FAMILY PRAYER TIME (Loyola Press)

In the beginning of today's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples to make preparations for the Passover meal. Like most meals, the Passover meal required planning and preparation. Our celebration of the Sunday Eucharist also requires planning and preparation. Certainly the ministers at the Eucharist prepare for their roles: the person presiding prays and prepares the homily; the prayers of petition are written; the music ministers prayerfully select music and practice it before Mass; Eucharistic ministers, lectors and altar servers prepare carefully for their roles. As the worshipping assembly, we can also prepare for the Mass through our prayer during the week, by reading the Scripture before Mass, and by making ourselves present to the Eucharistic celebration. As you gather as a family, talk about some of the things that are required to prepare for your family meals. Plan together a special Sunday meal by choosing the menu, preparing the shopping list, and assigning duties for cooking, setting the table, preparing decorations, leading the prayers, and cleaning. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 14:12-16, 22-26. Notice how Jesus instructed his disciples to prepare for their Passover meal. All meals require some kind of planning and preparation; so, too, our Sunday Eucharist requires planning. What might we do as a family to better prepare for our celebration of the Eucharist? Choose one or more ideas to begin to implement together as a family. Pray together that God will help your family make your celebration of the Eucharist the highlight of your week. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPEL - MK 14:12-16, 22-26

1. The symbolic gesture of breaking and sharing bread and sharing the cup, that Jesus made at the Last Supper, symbolised the offering of himself that he would make on Calvary, giving his life for others. Sometimes we also are called to give our lives for others. We can do this grudgingly or with a generous heart. What difference has it made for you when you were able to give yourself freely?
2. In his encyclical letter Deus Caritas Est. Pope Benedict XVI wrote, 'A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is essentially fragmented'. What has helped you to be aware of the importance of the link between the Eucharist and your lifestyle?
3. Jesus involved his disciples both in the preparation for the Last Supper and in its celebration. Recall times when you had a heightened awareness of participation and involvement in the Mass. What helped to give you this awareness? Are there lessons from these special experiences that you can bring with you to the routine Sunday Mass? (Loyola Press)

CHILDRENS CORNER (Loyola Press)

A contract is a promise to do something such as to build someone's house. It is not valid unless it has been signed. Usually people sign their names or their initials. Years ago, contracts were sealed by pressing a metal initial ring or other special symbol into hot wax. There must be some official way for a contract to be marked, or no one will believe that it is a true promise. This week's Gospel tells of the time when God made an agreement with all of us. God promised that through Jesus' death on the cross, we would be forgiven for our sins as we turn away from them and turn back to God. The agreement was sealed with the Body and Blood of Jesus. At the Last Supper, when Jesus took bread and wine and blessed them, he promised to give his own body and blood as proof of God's great love for us. We remember and celebrate this promise each time we celebrate Mass. Pray the Our Father, thanking God for his gift of the Eucharist.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL: The Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference in Kiltimagh wishes to express our regret and sadness at the closing of our shop recently. Due to circumstances beyond our control and failure to find another suitable premises, we were left with no other alternative, but to close. We want to thank most sincerely everyone who supported Vincents over the past eight years with your very welcome donations that generated much needed revenue in our Conference. A big thank you to our wonderful loyal customers. We wish to acknowledge and thank our volunteers who without them the shop would not have been able to operate. Thank you all.
