World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly established by Pope Francis which will take place for the second time on this Sunday 24 July 2022 on the theme 'In old age they will still bear fruit (Ps 92:15)'. The World Day was established to be celebrated on the Sunday closest to the Feast Day of Saints Joachim and Anne on 26 July. 'Let us too become, as it were, poets of prayer: let us develop a taste for finding our own words, let us once again take up those taught by the word of God. Our trustful prayer can do a great deal: it can accompany the cry of pain of those who suffer, and it can help change hearts. We can be "the enduring 'chorus' of a great spiritual sanctuary, where prayers of supplication and songs of praise sustain the community that toils and struggles in the field of life.' (Pope's Message WDGE 22)

Prayer for Blessing of Grandparents: Lord God almighty, bless our grandparents with long life, happiness, and health. May they remain constant in your love and be living signs of your presence to their children and grandchildren. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Collectors: The parish needs more collectors both male and female for all the weekend Masses so that a rota can be put in place. If you are willing to participate in this ministry please contact 0868552412. Thanking you in advance and sincere thanks to all our present collectors.

Cemetery: Eight people were present for cemetery meeting on Monday last. New chairperson, secretary and treasurer were put in place. Former holders present who have served on the committee for over 20 years are willing to continue to give their support. It was decided to have a general clean up on Thursday next July 28th in Kilkinure cemetery at 7pm prior to Mass on Friday 29th at 8pm. Everyone who can is requested to help out. Requirements for clean up will be provided. Thanks is expressed to RSS workers for cutting grass. Donation buckets to help cover maintenance costs will be available at entrances on Friday evening and contributions will be much appreciated. It is great that path to cemetery is in place and is a credit to everyone involved. Killeadan cemetery Mass will be on Friday August 5th at 8pm.

POPE'S INTENTION FOR JULY: For the elderly: We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

CHILDREN'S CORNER (Loyola Press)

What are some ways we talk to other people? (In person, through social media, video-messaging, texts, phone calls.) God calls us to communicate with him often. How do we talk to God? (praying aloud and in silence, in song). In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that God our Father always hears our prayers. What did one of the disciples ask Jesus to teach them? (how to pray) Jesus tells us to pray often. God loves us and reaches out to us. We respond by praying to him. We can tell God our hopes, fears, and needs. We can pray to him any time and anywhere, in good times and in hard times. We can thank him for loving us and sending his Son, Jesus, to save us. Conclude by praying the Lord's Prayer.

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press)

When someone in our family is going through a hard time, we can't just sit by and watch. We try to do everything we can to let him or her know that he or she is not alone. Sometimes we even try to find a special gift for him or her—something that will help that person to understand how important he or she is to us. Talk about times in your family when this has happened. Like a good father, God saw that his children needed help. He decided to offer his beloved children a special gift to reveal his love. What did God give us? Not a thing, but a person—the Father's beloved Son, Jesus. Jesus, in turn, taught us to approach God as we would approach a loving father. He gave us the words of a prayer that we call the Our Father, or the Lord's Prayer. Read aloud Luke 11:1-13. Talk about how Jesus teaches us to be persistent in prayer. Think of times when family members were persistent about something until they were able to achieve a goal or receive what they sought. Talk about what it means to be persistent in prayer. Help your children understand that prayer is not like sitting on Santa Claus's lap, asking for what we want until we get it. Emphasize that prayer is a way of striving to recognize how God is reaching out to us in love and responding by presenting him with our needs. Conclude this time together by joining hands and praying the Lord's Prayer.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH LENS OF THE GOSPEL - Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the prayer Jesus gave us as a model, the focus is not on getting God to do what we want, but on trying to be open to what God wants: 'Your kingdom come'. That openness implies a trust that what God wants for us is our good. When have you found that it was good for you to take life as it comes, trusting that the Spirit was with you no matter what happened?

It can be helpful at times to pray the Lord's Prayer with one eye on what you see lies ahead for you in the day. Spend a moment thinking of what you have to do and then take each phrase of the Lord's Prayer and see how that speaks to your agenda.

One of the points in the parable of the friend knocking at the door, is that in the case of true friendship it will not be necessary to brow-beat the friend into giving what you seek. Recall times when you had a friend who gave willingly and readily. What was it like to have such a generous and willing response? Perhaps you can also recall when you have been that kind of a friend to others.

In the culture of the Middle East hospitality is a priority. It would be unimaginable not to help a friend. Just so, it is unimaginable that God will ignore our prayer. When you think of the reliability of God what are the images that you find helpful and that encourage you to persist in prayer.

WEDDING: Congratulations and best wishes for the future to Lynda McHugh, Ballyglass and Raymond Campbell, Lisnamonagh, who were married in Kiltimagh Church on Friday, July 15th.

BAPTISM: We welcome into the Christian Community Fionn Joseph Carroll, Ballure who was baptized in Kiltimagh Church last weekend.
