SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This Sunday we break from our reading of Matthew's Gospel (the primary Gospel for our current liturgical cycle, Cycle A) to read from John's Gospel. We heard Matthew's account of Jesus' baptism last Sunday, on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Today, we hear John the Baptist's testimony about Jesus as found in John's Gospel. John's Gospel differs from the other Gospels because John does not describe Jesus' baptism by John the Baptist. Instead, John the Baptist announces that he knows that Jesus is the Son of God. John calls Jesus the "Lamb of God" and the "Son of God." By using these titles, John the Baptist identifies Jesus' ultimate purpose: to redeem sinful humanity.

RECENT DEATH: Pray for JOHN KING, Ballinamore Nursing Home and formerly of Ballyglass whose death took place during the week.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY: 18 – 25 January. The theme for this year is Do good; seek justice, from Isaiah 1:17. The prophet's challenge applies equally today. How can we live our unity as Christians so as to confront the evils and injustices of our time. Together, let us engage in the struggle for justice in our society. We all belong to Christ.

SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD: Sunday Next January 22. It is to help 'reawaken an awareness of the importance of Sacred Scripture in our lives as believers. All Ministers of the Word in our parish are requested to renew their commissioning following the homily at either 7.30pm, 9.30am or 11am Masses next weekend.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCILS: On February 5th, it is hoped that each parish in the diocese will have its Parish Pastoral Council in place. These will be commissioned by the Bishop at the Cathedral in Ballaghaderreen. Their work will be undertaken as a partnership, a group exercise, working with all members of the parish to enrich their lives of faith as a community. Nomination Forms to be returned this weekend or during this week ahead. Thank you for nominations and taking on ministries in our parish.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEEK begins next Sunday, January 22nd. The theme this year is 'Walking Together in Faith and Love'.

POPE INTENTION FOR JANUARY - For educators: We pray that educators may be credible witnesses, teaching fraternity rather than competition and helping the youngest and most vulnerable above all.

OFFERTORY & REFURBISHMENT ENVELOPE BOXES are available for 2023. They are set out in alphabetic order. If your townland, street, estate begins with A you will find your boxes in A section, if B in B section and so on. If your boxes are missing or you would like boxes and are not on list please let us know. Envelopes are essential for tax rebate scheme. If you pay tax and contribute €250 or more to all collections during the year please consider allowing the parish to claim tax rebate by completing and returning form CHY 3 available at church doors if not already doing so. Thank you to everyone who supports our parish.

CHURCHGATE COLLECTION FOR THE IRISH PILGRIMAGE TRUST will be held at all churches on the weekend of the 21st & 22nd January. This charity brings young people with learning and physical disabilities to Lourdes at Easter and your support would be gratefully appreciated. Thanks in advance.

CHILDREN'S CORNER (Loyola Press)

In the Gospel today we have mention of two Symbols, the lamb and the dove. The dove represents peace because back when God told Noah to build the ark and it rained for such a long time, Noah knew the land was finally drying up because he sent a dove out and it did not come back. It landed on a tree branch, which meant that the flood water had gone down far enough for the tree to be above it. The purification of the flood was over. When the dove landed on Jesus, it was a sign that Jesus would bring peace. What kind of peace did John the Baptist say that Jesus would bring? (John said that Jesus was the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.) And Jesus did just that . . . he died for our sins and brings us the peace of knowing that we are friends again with God. Pray that we will recognize Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away our sins and the sin of the world. Then pray the Lord's Prayer.

FAMILY PRAYER TIME (Loyola Press)

The ministry of John the Baptist prepared for and pointed to the ministry of Jesus. In a similar way, our lives are to offer testimony to who we know Jesus to be for us and for the world. Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. How does the witness of our lives give testimony to the reconciling presence of Christ? As a family, identify as many titles for Jesus as possible, such as Lamb of God, Son of God, Prince of Peace, and so on. Talk together about what these different titles mean and what they tell you about Jesus. Then read together today's Gospel, John 1:29-34. Consider how John the Baptist gives testimony to who Jesus is. Talk about what people might come to know about Jesus by observing your family life. Pray together that your family life will show others that Jesus is the Son of God, the lamb who takes away the sins of the world. Pray the Lord's Prayer.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPEL - Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (Intercom)

John is one who directs people to Jesus as the one who had a life-giving message for them. Who have been the people in your life whose example or advice pointed you in the direction of a fuller life? Who has helped you to appreciate the importance of Jesus and his message? In the narrative John recognised that Jesus had more to offer people than he himself. He had the humility not to need to be the star of the show. Whom have you known with that grounded sense of their own place? John proclaims Jesus as one who takes away the sin of the world. Who have been the people who, for you, continued this mission of Jesus and led you from sin and guilt to forgiveness and freedom? For whom have you done this? It was not just on the cross that Jesus gave his life as the Lamb of God. His public ministry was a constant struggle against injustice and oppression. When have you shared in this mission of Jesus? Who have been models of this for you?
