THIRTY - THIRD SUNDAY - PEOPLE OF THE PARISH

32ND SUNDAY PRAYER: Jesus tells us that there is a right time and a time when it will be too late. I ask God's help that I may realise what it is I might do now, how I might recognise the approaching bridegroom and welcome him. The lamp is given us by God and our prayer or time given to God is the oil. All of God's action in our lives is his gift, but it needs our openness and welcome. Prayer builds up our 'supply of oil', which can give light and fragrance to the rest of our lives. There is a time for preparation and a time for action. There is never a time for carelessness. I ask God to prepare me for the needs of this time.

SUNDAY MASS TIME: Sunday next November 19th Parish Pastoral Council members will give parishioners attending 9.30am and 11am Masses a slip of paper and pen as they enter the church to choose either 10am or 10.30am as the time for Sunday Mass beginning in the new year. Parishioners are requested to place their choice in the baskets provided as they leave the church. Parish Pastoral Council thanks everyone for their co-operation.

REMEMBRANCE TREE placed in the sanctuary to place names of loved ones during the month of November. 12 Masses will be offered for Faithful Departed. Thank you for November Offerings.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE for all who died in our Parish since last November will be celebrated in Kiltimagh Church on Friday, Nov 24th at 7.30pm. A candle with each person's name will be available to be brought forward to the sanctuary by a family member or representative of them during the Mass. If anyone would like to have a candle for someone who died elsewhere since last November please leave name at 0949381198 or text 0879082342. Candles will be available for everyone present to bring forward to remember their own loved ones

POPE'S INTENTION FOR NOV: For The Pope - We pray for the Holy Father; as he fulfills his mission, may he continue to accompany the flock entrusted to him, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

'WHAT DO WE KNOW ABOUT JESUS?' Adult Faith Formation Course with Fr Eugene Duffy. Location: St John's Welcome Centre, Knock Shrine, 8pm - 9.30pm. The series will provide a basic foundation for those who want to deepen their own faith and be in a position to share it with others. It would be an ideal foundational course for those engaged in parish ministries, diocesan or parish pastoral councils. www.knockshrine.ie

BAPTISM: We welcome into the Christian Community Maddie Anne Cronin, Foxfield Park and Ryan Senán Kelly who were baptized in Kiltimagh Church last weekend.

CHILDREN'S CORNER (Loyola Press)

It's important that we do all the things we need to do to get ready in the morning, isn't it? We don't want to forget something important, like our schoolbooks, by being distracted by things we don't need to do. Today's Gospel reading is about being ready for something different. We learn about being ready to receive Jesus. Were the wise women in Jesus' parable able to attend the wedding? Why? (Yes, they were prepared.) Were the women who were unprepared able to attend the wedding feast? (No.) Just like the wise women in this story, we need to be ready to receive Jesus. When we live as Jesus has taught us to live, we are ready to receive him. What are some things Jesus has taught us to do? (Pray, love God and one another, share, follow the Commandments, be our best at home and at school.) Pray that Jesus will continue to help us be ready to receive him. Pray the Lord's Prayer.

FAMILY PRAYER TIME (Loyola Press)

In the daily activities of family life, we can easily find excuses for not attending to our spiritual lives. If not given top priority, prayer and reading Scripture risk becoming occasional activities rather than daily practices. In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that if we fail to give our spiritual life priority, we will find ourselves unprepared to receive Jesus. Daily prayer and spiritual practice keeps us ready to receive Jesus. Gather together as a family and talk about some of the things our faith calls us to do every day and every week to keep God first in our lives. Talk about what might happen if we don't do these things regularly. Explain to your family that Jesus taught us that it is important to keep ourselves ready to receive him when he comes again. Tell them to listen as you read the parable that Jesus tells in today's Gospel. Read aloud Matthew 25:1-13. Talk with your family about why Jesus says that it is so important to remain ready to receive the Kingdom of Heaven. Pray together that your family will always keep God first in your lives so that you will all be prepared to receive Jesus when he comes. Pray together today's Psalm.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH LENS OF THE GOSPEL (Intercom) - Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

While the parable has clear end-of-time applications it can also be applied to any moment of grace. It reminds us that moments of grace come unexpectedly, and we need to be awake to receive them. Recall times when you were alert for such a moment. What were the consequences for you? Grace can also be disturbing. We can be coasting along in life and suddenly an opportunity or a graced moment arrives and we are shaken out of our routine in order to respond. Perhaps you can recall both moments when you were unprepared, and moments when you were able to respond. What lessons have you learned from such experiences? We may be tempted to judge the wise virgins as being selfish for not sharing with the others, but perhaps Jesus is teaching us that there are some things that other people cannot provide for us. We have to acquire them ourselves. What qualities in life do you see as the essential oil that you must provide for yourself?
